SLASA MEMBERSHIP 2012

2012 membership fees are now due

Membership fees include membership of SLASA, membership of ASLA and receipt of the SLASA Newsletter and the ASLA journal ACCESS.

Members will be automatically subscribed to slasanet, the online discussion list for school library staff in South Australia. Members have access to the SLASA library of professional resources.

School/institutional membership entitles staff from the school to attend PD sessions, including conferences, at member rates. Details about SLASA PD for 2012 is available on the SLASA website at www.slasa.asn.au

Member-only access to Referencing Generator

SLASA members receive access to the SLASA Online Referencing Generator (ORG). 2012 information and passwords will be sent during term 1

SLASA's Mission Statement

To have Teacher Librarians in every school fulfilling the dual role of teacher and information specialist, thereby improving educational outcomes by creating an information literate community

SLASA advocates for school libraries and the profession, provides professional learning and resource materials and maintains clear and effective communication within and beyond the profession
